Selection Process

Interested athletes will have to take part in selected meets for qualification. The following local meets (not exhaustive) have been identified to be the official time trials for qualification to the 30th Summer Universiade:

- SA Inter-Club Championships – Oct 2018
- ASEAN University Games (AUG) – Dec 2018
- Institute-Varsity-Polytechnic (IVP) Games – Jan 2019
- SA Track & Field Series 1 – Jan 2019
- SA Track & Field Series 2 – Feb 2019
- 81st Singapore Open Track & Field Championship – Mar 2019

- Results of overseas competition may be taken into consideration, provided they are official competitions sanctioned by Singapore Athletics and conforming to IAAF rules.
- The qualifying window is from 1 May 2018 to 30 April 2019.
- The best two athletes that meet the QM for each event will be selected to represent Singapore University Team.
- If there are more than 2 athletes who meet the qualifying performance criteria for a particular event AND there is a tie, the performance attained later (i.e. closer to the WUG) will be selected. The final number of athletes that will be entered will be based on the maximum number of athletes that can be entered per event in the competition.
- Wind assisted performance (over 2m/s) will not be accepted.
- SUSC reserves the right to nominate/reject athletes in the final nomination.

4. Training and tune up

- Selected athletes of the Singapore University team will have to undergo combined training sessions, to be confirmed by the Team Manager.
- Upon qualification, athletes must continue to show commitment towards preparing for WUG19. If they do not, they may be dropped from the Singapore University team.

5. Funding

- Selected athletes from any of the Singapore Universities will be subsidized by their own University funding scheme. Please contact your respective Sports Officers for more details.
- Athletes who win a gold medal at AUG 2018 will be funded by NYSI to participate in the 30th Summer Universiade (on condition that the FISU qualifying standards are met).
